Students

Vandalism

Vandalism by Minors

The parent or guardian of any minor/unemancipated child who willfully cuts, defaces or otherwise injures in any way any property, real or personal, belonging to the school system shall be held liable for all such damages up to the maximum amount allowed under state law.

The liability provided under Connecticut General Statutes 52-572 does not relieve the minor(s) or personal liability for such damage or injury. This liability of the parent for damages done by a minor child is in addition to any other liability which exists in law.

The parent or guardian of a minor child also shall be held liable for all property belonging to the school system lent to the student and not returned upon demand of the school system. The student also may be liable to disciplinary action.

Vandalism by an Adult Student

An adult student shall be held personally liable for any damage done to any property, real or personal, belonging to the school district. The student also may be subject to disciplinary action.

Legal Reference: Connecticut General Statutes

10-221 Board of education to prescribe rules (subsection (c) re - sanctions that may be imposed by a board against students who damage or fail to return textbooks, library materials or other educational materials)

52-572 Parental liability for torts of minors. Damage defined