

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Innovation and Transformational Leadership Network Announced

Alexandria, Va. and Rexford, N.Y. (January 9, 2019) –

The AASA, The School Superintendents Association and the Successful Practices Network (SPN) have collaborated to launch an Innovation and Transformational Leadership Network. Launched on October 28th, in Columbus, Ohio, the cohort will be a year-long experience for which superintendents and their leadership teams will be supported to apply innovative best practices toward sustained improvements within their school systems.

The Innovation and Transformation Leadership Network participating school districts are:

- Fayetteville-Manlius Central School District, Manlius, New York
- Anderson School District Five, Anderson, South Carolina
- Newman-Crows Landing USD, Newman, California
- Elmhurst Community Unit School District 205, Elmhurst, Illinois
- New Hyde Park- Garden City Park UFSD, New Hyde Park, New York
- Middletown Public Schools, Middletown, Connecticut
- Dartmouth Public Schools, Dartmouth, Massachusetts
- Baldwin Public Schools, Baldwin, New York
- Asbury Park Public Schools, Asbury Park, New Jersey
- Mountain Education Charter High School, Cleveland, Georgia
- Pickens County School District, Easley, South Carolina
- Maine Township 207, Park Ridge, Illinois
- Lawrence-Lewis BOCES, Canton, New York
- Wilder School District, Wilder, Idaho
- Rochester Public Schools, Rochester, Minnesota
- Union County Public Schools, Monroe, North Carolina